No the Trade

THE tendency and growth of our business is a guarantee to our barber friends that good goods, low prices and prompt, honest dealing is our motto—this being the foundation of our success. We try to please, and satisfaction follows; we give our customers full value for their money.

Our establishment is one of the largest of its kind in the country; we possess all the facilities required by a first-class house. The different branches of our factory are in good running order, adding from time to time new improvements and inventions. Our Barber Chair Manufactory has been added to by a newly invented (tilting) machine for adjusting the chair (see illustration on page 67). No cogs, no notches, no rattling, perfectly noiseless, and secure and simple in construction.

GUSTAV KNECHT'S

"Diamond Zenith Razor"

Introduced Only Six Years and Known All Over The World.

In the annals of Cutlery Manufacturing there is Not a Like Success on Record.

Forty years of CONSTANT STUDY has been REWARDED with OVERWHELMING expectation. It is not our way to shout and puff about things or print here the NUMEROUS TESTIMONIALS which we have received and receive daily.

THE ZENITH RAZOR STANDS HIGH BY ITS OWN MERIT.

Now, as all good things are liable to be imitated, parties trying to, and imagine they could get an article to equal the ZENITH RAZOR.

The first thing they do, is to find an attractive name for such goods; look at OTHER CATALOGUES for various names they have chosen to that effect.

Some dealers imagine the abduction of a good name (stamped upon goods) would blinden their patrons, who take it an opportunity to give such an assertion a small trial.

The ZENITH RAZOR will deny all these attempts!

It is made in a manner not known to others, and stands firm by its quality.

This name and  is used only for the identification of these celebrated Razors, because when our patrons once had them, they want them again.

What is a barber without a good razor? Made for his purpose alone.

The ZENITH RAZOR fills this place; it is, as it stands, UNIVERSAL as to quality and reputation. The DIAMOND ZENITH RAZOR and Gust. Knecht's own make ALL STEEL (hammered) SHEARS are the PRINCIPALS of the BARBER'S CUTLERY.

THE GOODS SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES.

We are Headquarters in Grinding Clippers. We grind them ourselves like good mechanics. We have the proper machinery. We do not believe in puffing worthless articles for the sake of making sales and thus disappointing our customers.

GRINDING AND REPAIRING.

Please Observe the following Directions when Sending in Barbers' Cutlery for Grinding:

Mail Packages.—Do not paste, nor seal, nor put in any writing. Write your name and address outside, and send instructions extra by letter, according to late postal regulations. Razors should be wrapped with thin, neat wire around before the paper wrapper is placed on.

Express Packages.—You can put in letter with full address and instructions. It is the safest way to send by express. Packages of one Razor or Shears should be prepaid.

Please attach your address to all orders and packages you send for repairs.

As we are MECHANICS ourselves, we claim to do what is called “A No. 1 Work.”

Concaving of Razors in proper style is an art of itself, and ought to be placed in the hands of real mechanics only.

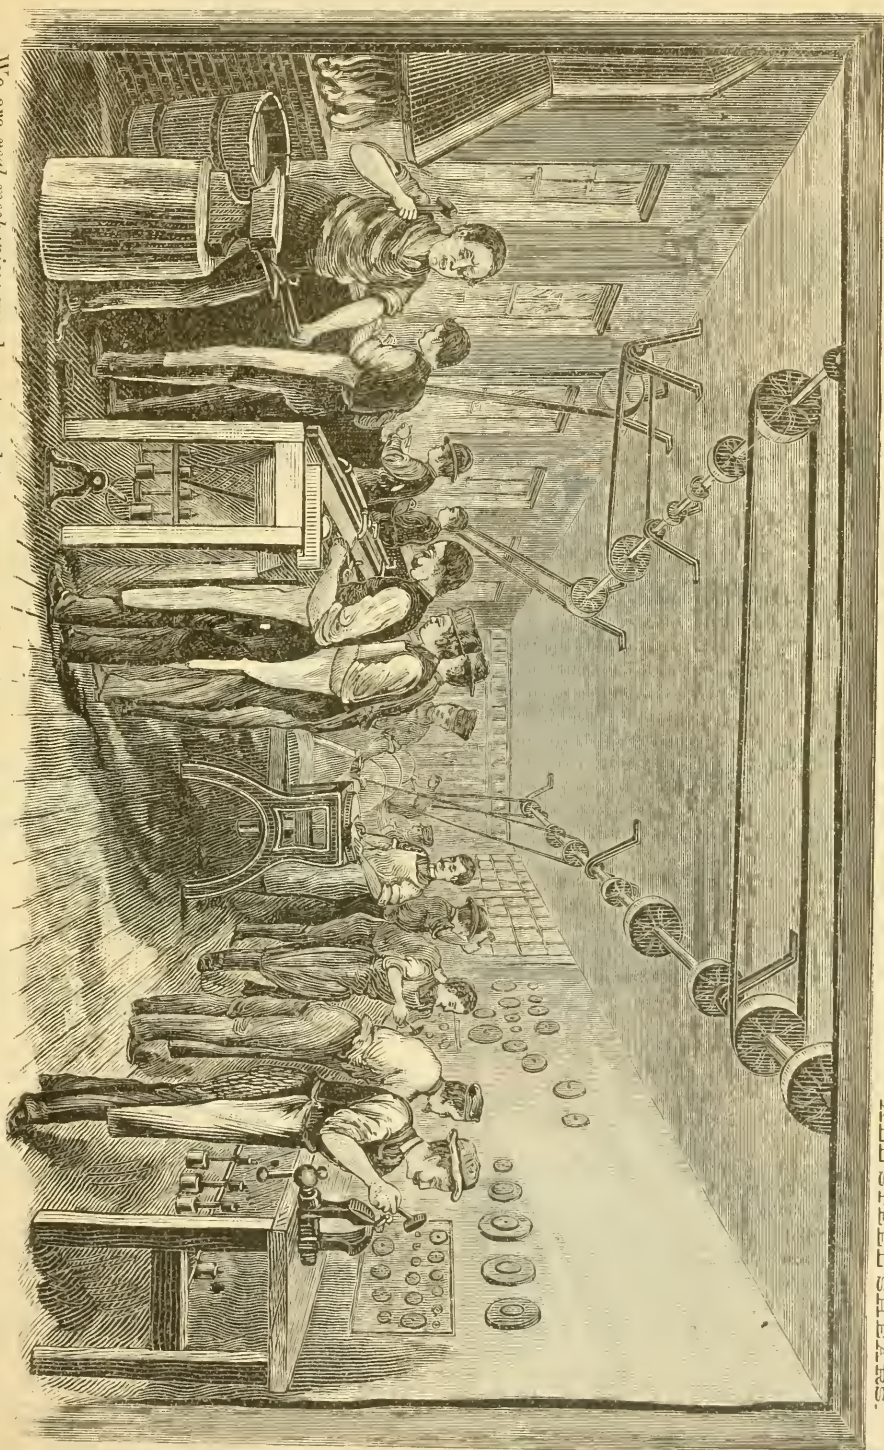

WE DO NOT GRIND RAZORS DRY.

Our establishment is systematically arranged, provided with the most practical and latest improvements and inventions of our own, so there is no need of unscrupulous puffs, calculated only for people who never look at real facts.

WE ARE PRACTICAL CUTLERS. We grind and repair Tailor Shears and other Cutlery.

ALL STEEL SHEARS.

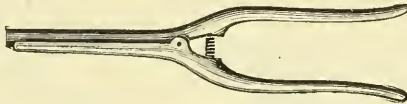

We are real mechanics; we do not need to run our works with outraged old-fashioned help. We study and act, therefore we do the best of work—no old time steam forcing methods are applied by our concaving; no possibility of injuring the temper of a razor by our electro-gas process, razors and grindstones are kept entirely wet while in operation. We do not grind razors dry.

HONES.

Our advantages in filling Orders for Hones.—The way and manner as started by Mr. Knecht, Sr., a few years ago, when in Europe, having the Hones undergo a close inspection, before they leave the quarry (every single one) by one thus educated expert, has given us a great advantage and benefit in receiving nothing but selected goods. Our Hone trade is a large one, and we shall continue in employing all possible means to secure good hones for our patrons. We can thus say we have better Hones to offer than the ordinary market supply.

Please give particulars with order as to grit, size and limited price.

We have the SWATY RAZOR HONES, Price $2, and sell these on their own merit.

NOISELESS BARBER CHAIR, TILTING (MOVEMENT) MACHINERY.

PATENTED OCTOBER 4, 1887.

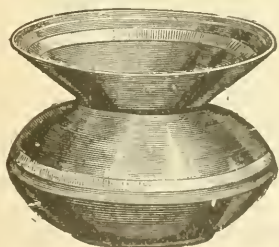

We can flatter ourselves to possess the patent of the most approved Barber Chair Tilting Machinery; approved and acknowledged the best patented machine invented.

It is noiseless, because there are no cogs, no notches, nor any other obstructions, which cause a constant rattle after in use a little while, and are subject to repairs. Our invention is new; after known to barber customers our chairs are preferred on account of the lifting movement. We exchange chairs, and give our chairs in trade with new machine.

BARBER POLES—Continued.

A well assorted Stock of Barber Poles is kept on hand in our Salesroom.

After many experiments we have come to the conclusion that Poles turned from a dry and solid cedar beam stand exposure to the weather far better than those made of hollow ordinary pine wood.

We turn out quite a number of Poles, and many are to be found on the streets of Chicago and elsewhere.

The first attraction of a well fitted up Barber Shop is a good nice Pole.

Our painter is an artist in his line. Nothing but the best material is used; the balls and rings are gilded with pure gold leaf. The colors on our Poles keep their bright appearance for several years.

Our No. 5 Pole is octagon in center, with raised gilded stars. (See illustrations.) A splendid and showy pattern.

BATHROOM FIXTURES.Wilks' Heater for Bathroom.

These cuts show the respective position of the Cold Water Tank, Boiler and Heaters. In case you want us to furnish pipe and fittings please give us a plan and detailed description of the room by diagram, stating height, width and length, and how the fixtures are to be placed.

One Iron Tank or Boiler is always necessary. Connection should not be made directly from Heater to Bath Tub.

COLD WATER TANK.

Made from select Common Pine, and well supported and secured by strong iron hoops.

The 100, 200 and 300 gallon Wooden Tanks can be shipped as they are. The larger sizes are better shipped knocked down (taken apart) on account of the lower charges for transportation. In shipping knocked down, all pieces are plainly marked, so they can easily be put together. No extra charge for boxing, etc.

If there is no water-works in your city you need the following fixtures: 1st, a wooden cold water tank; 2d, an iron tank or boiler; 3d, a heater; 4th, bath tubs. Connect the heater with the iron tank or boiler (see cut), run a pipe from the top of tank to the cold water supply; hot water is drawn off from the iron tank to the bath tubs, a separate pipe for cold water being needed from the main water supply (wooden tank) to bath tubs. We cut and thread the iron pipes to order, and set all up in our workshop, if details are given, so it does not absolutely require a professional plumber to bring the articles in place and in working order.

Above illustrations show Wilks' Bathroom Heater, which has been found reliable, and used for many years past. They are made of heavy boiler iron, securely riveted. Each Heater can be relied upon to furnish the amount of hot water stated. They combine safety with durability and economy. Persons in attendance should not fire the Heater while empty of water, nor let cold water in while heater is hot. The illustration on bottom of next page on left side shows the small heater, not self-feeder. Upper part is a heavy portion of the smoke pipe, with feed door, which we furnish with the Heater. The illustration to the right on bottom of next page shows the large size self-feeder, with damper chain and improved top for pipe connections. Our Wilks' Heaters have experienced many improvements of late.

Outfits for our Bath Tubs, including Wilks' Heater (size 10x18), 30 gallon boiler, 2 Fuller Bibbs, and 1 Zink and Bath Tub. Total cost, $47.

For prices of Heaters, see bottom of next page. For Bath Tubs, Galvanized Iron Boiler, Pipe and Fittings, see next page.
